

How to Save a Load of Money at Dell

Follow these quick tips to save the most money on your next Dell purchase.

1. Don't go to the main Dell.com website.

This really important. Whatever Dell url you go to first your cookies will track those prices to your cart. Dell has special member sites set up with better prices. It's Free to join both advantage programs. However, Advantage Preferred requires a credit check and issues a line of credit while the regular advantage program doesn't.
